Projects:-

Project Name:- E-Commerce for Farmers

Description and its key features:

E-Commerce for Farmers is a tech-driven platform that connects farmers directly with buyers, suppliers, service providers, and market information—cutting out the middlemen and giving power back to the hands that till the soil. It leverages digital tools (web apps, mobile apps, AI, IoT) to revolutionize agriculture and rural economies by enabling transparent, profitable, and scalable farming trade.

Features of project:

- Enables farmers to list and sell crops, seeds, fertilizers, and tools online.
- Provides real-time crop price prediction based on market trends and demand.
- Suggests best crops to grow using AI based on soil, season, and demand.
- Builds farmer profiles with land, crop, and income history.
- Includes community chat, forums, and video content for peer support and learning.

Technologies Used:

- HTML, CSS, JavaScript for Frontend.
- PHP for Backend

Extracurricular Activities:

- Participated in weekly coding challenges and hackathons.
- Collaborated on a team project to develop a ChatGPT Clone project.
- Organized workshops on emerging technologies like AI and blockchain.
